

Topic:

Contemporary Counterterrorism - Africa

Speaker:

Raymond M Mori, SSA

FBI – Houston

Bio

SSA Raymond M. Mori supervises the FBI Joint Terrorism Task Force (JTTF) squad in Houston with responsibilities for Africa, Homegrown Violent Extremism, and the Protection of Foreign Officials programs. He has served over 22 years as an FBI special agent working in the areas of Property Crime, White Collar Fraud, Counterintelligence, and Counterterrorism investigations. He was recruited by the FBI in Honolulu and has since served in San Diego, San Juan, Washington DC, and Houston. His international experience includes time in Tokyo, Mexico City, Riyadh, Montpellier, France, and Mainz, Germany. SSA Mori is a UCLA ROTC graduate and served as an infantry officer with the US Army in Germany during the fall of the Berlin Wall. He has a bachelor's degree in Geography and a master's degree in Management.