

ASIS – ISACA Houston Joint Luncheon Meeting

Special Pre-Meeting Session

10 A.M. – 11:30 A.M.

Attend this Session for an extra 1 Hour CEU at no additional charge.

Then stay for our normal luncheon meeting (1 hour CEU) from 11:30 A.M. to 1 P.M.

(You are not required to attend the early meeting...you may attend our normal meeting and lunch at 11:30.)

"A Day in the Life of a CISO"

Mark W. Johnson

Huntsman International, LLC

The world of the CISO is changing rapidly, this interactive discussion will provide you with a much better understanding of the depth, breadth and business impact of these changes. The discussion will take a quick look at the following;

- Trends driving these changes
- Overview of the security domains and maturity assessment
- Stake holders and their business drivers
- Rules of the road

Bio:

MARK W. JOHNSON is responsible for global governance, risk and compliance activities and has been with Huntsman since November 2006 located in The Woodlands, Texas office. During his tenure, his responsibilities included: 1) Development and publishing IT Security policies, standards and guidelines 2) Creation and implementation of a (5) year IT Security strategy and associated capital to implement the technology and / or business processes 3) Implemented an IT Security governance model for the identification of risk and associated remediation strategies 4) Responsible for supporting investigation and general litigation support including e-discovery 5) Utilized COSO and COBIT for the development of our IT internal control framework 6) Responsible for the IT relationship with External and Internal Audit organizations 7) Member of the HR Privacy Committee and global regulatory compliance 8) Responsibility for IT compliance with Sarbanes/Oxley. 9) IT representative responsible for development and implementation the Manufacturing SCADA system security standards, to include compliance with Chemical Facility Anti-Terrorism Standard (CFAS). Prior to joining Huntsman, Mark served in similar positions with two fortune 500 companies in the Houston, Texas area. Over the last six years, he was able to utilize his Department of Homeland Security (DHS) security clearance to gain valuable insight into potential threats against the chemical manufacturing sector and critical information infrastructure. In addition to the above, Mark is responsible for IT merger and acquisition due diligence for Huntsman. He recently completed a two and half year assignment as the acting Chief Information Officer (CIO) for the global integration of Rockwood International a $1.3 billion acquisition consisting of (22) sites and over 3,000 associates. Prior to joining the private sector, Mark held many executive level roles in enterprise resource planning, application development, enterprise infrastructure as well as working in the research and development of Command and Control systems for the United States Marine Corps.
